

Corporate Fact Sheet

CONQWEST is a privately held company specializing in Information Security and policy management solutions. By coupling best-of-breed security technology with top-notch customization services and support, CONQWEST guides businesses in the evaluation, establishment, education and enforcement of sound security policies.

Over the past eleven years CONQWEST has strategically aligned itself with best-of-breed security vendors in the Firewall, VPN, Anti-Spyware, Anti-Phishing, Anti-Virus, URL Filtering, Wireless Security, Policy Management, Intrusion Detection, Intrusion Prevention and Remote Management space. These strategic relationships enable us to offer our customers a comprehensive and tightly integrated security and policy management solution.

- Security Services: CONQWEST offers its customers a personalized approach to solving their Information Security needs via a proven methodology known as the Four E's – Evaluate, Establish, Educate and Enforce. Our Service offerings are focused on the first two components of this methodology – Evaluating corporate Information security and Establishing more secure corporate environments. Services include: External Vulnerability Testing, Internal Audit; Security Policy Review and Development; Internet Security Maintenance; Comprehensive Security Audit; User Awareness Training, Monthly and Quarterly Health Checks and Bandwidth Utilization Review.
- Value Added Reseller (VAR): CONQWEST is a successful Information Security VAR, specializing in the sale and support of best-of-breed Information Security technology solutions. These industry leading security solutions help to protect companies by securing their corporate infrastructure.

CONQWEST has aligned itself with industry leading technology and service partners in order to provide its customers with an integrated approach to solving their security and policy management needs. Our impressive customer list contains numerous Fortune 1000 companies interested in protecting their corporate assets and information infrastructure.

Founded in 1993, CONQWEST, Inc. is a leading supplier of advanced Information Security Solutions that enable organizations of all sizes to better leverage and control their investments in Internet and related Information Technology.